WE'RE COO

UP A STO

At kichn, we embrace your right to choose. We celebrate the unpredictable, and it is with this same approach that we serve our food. In fact, satisfying your gastronomical tantrums is only half our goal. Our dream is to create a place for you to break out of your routine, take a breath of some cool morning air and giggle with some friends for a while. Cooking up recipes is great—but cooking up a storm is better.
